

How to become a WeSGAS distributor

Invest with WANA and rip big.

1. Why choose WeSGas?

WeSGas is the future in the LPG cylinder world.
Read more: "15 Good Reasons"

2. Eligibility

A) Theory

- A passion for WeSGas and a firm desire to place it in homes while respecting standards and operational efficiency
- Citizens with high moral values in business dealing
- Previous business experience in LPG or related activity
- Newcomer both in the business world and gas distribution
- Adherence to all Fiscal Obligations related to gas distribution

B) Practice

- Storage or warehouse according to universal safety norms
- Logistics vehicle
- Own a distribution network or be ready to develop a network in record time
- Readiness to work on stretched targets
- Obligation to share data on activities with WANA.
- A bank account

3. What Is the Cost?

All you need is an initial capital of 10,000,000/= (Ten million Uganda shillings only). Your capital can always grow as the business grows.

How to become a WeSGas distributor

4. What Is Involved In the Cost?

The initial capital is intended for payment for the cylinders, the gas and the regulators.

Note: The cost of the cylinder is considered as a deposit and will be reimbursed upon termination of business dealings.

5. What Returns Can You Expect?

- With good management you can achieve interesting and high profits.
- Special incentive granted by WANA SOLUTIONS. on excellent performance.

6. What Is the Relationship Between WANA and the WeSGas Distributors?

- WANA has operational procedures and most especially safety and service standards that all distributors must follow.
- These rules are not imposed, but intended for the welfare of both parties when expected success and growth is evident for both parties.
- WANA is available for training of our partners' staff in product benefits and route to the market.

7. Who To Call?

You are welcome to WANA

0777704397; 0701704397;
0752561844; 0701561844
0701785621; admin@wesol.com
www.waesol.com

